

Winner: Karin Dupeyron

This award has been established to recognize CARA members whose services have been of significant benefit in advancing one or more of CARA's priority initiatives in a given year.

CARA is pleased to recognize Karin Dupeyron for her exceptional contributions in 2014. Karin has demonstrated an exceptional leadership commitment in several programs, in particular contributing her expertise in creating the design and leading the layout of our CARA Connection newsletter. Karin is also our busiest translator whose efforts have helped ensure timely bilingual material for our membership. Karin works at the Ministry of Advanced Education of the Government of Saskatchewan and has worked at the Office of Research Services of the University of Victoria, and at the Office for Research, Innovation and Partnership of the University of Regina.

Nominated by: Anita Sham