

Lauren Gogo is currently the Manager of Research Contracts at Hamilton Health Sciences Corporation. Prior to joining HHSC, Lauren was a Contracts Officer at the University of Toronto focusing on negotiating industry and government agreements in the Biomedical and Life Sciences Sector. She is well versed in negotiating intellectual property terms and worked closely with the commercialization team at U of T on agreements both pre- and post-invention. She was also a Research Business Analyst at St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto, and negotiated many clinical trial agreements as well as participated on the research ethics board to answer any contract-related questions.

Lauren has a Masters in Biomedical Technology, and is an active member of the Canadian Association of Research Administrators (CARA) where she is currently the coordinating editor of the newsletter, the CARA Connection