

A recent eMBA graduate from the Ivey School of Business, Katie Porter is the Clinical Agreements and Contracts Manager at Hamilton Health Sciences, a regular lecturer at McMaster University, co-author of The A-Z Guide to Research Contract Review and Steer Your Career: A Research Administrator's Manual for Mapping Success and a frequent speaker at conferences, workshops and webinars. A regular columnist for the SRACatalyst, editor for the CAURA Connection, CAURA mentor and SIG leader, Katie is a happy and engaged research administrator whose books are used by peers at more than 450 institutions globally. Her exceptional contributions to our profession internationally were recognized in 2012 by SRAInternational with the Excellence Award (advanced level).