

Winner: David Phipps

This award is presented to an exceptional research manager who has made outstanding contributions to the profession through innovation, creativity, hard work and dedication.

CARA is pleased to recognize long-time CARA volunteer, David Phipps, Executive Director, Research & Innovation Services, York University for his leadership and scholarship in knowledge mobilization both in Canada and internationally and the development of ResearchImpact, Canada's knowledge mobilization network. David is also a highly effective leader of his team at York and the recipient of the Queen's Jubilee Medal.

Nominated by: Michael Johnny